

Tyler T. Caley

ASSOCIATE

Tyler focuses his practice on first-party property, third-party liability, and construction defect litigation.

Tyler Caley is an associate in the firm's St. Petersburg office, where he focuses his practice on first-party property, third-party liability defense and coverage, and construction defect litigation. He approaches each matter with an aim to resolving disputes with efficiency and efficacy.

Tyler earned his law degree from the Pennsylvania State University. During law school, he served as an intern at the Office of the City Attorney in Tampa, Florida, and as an intern at a Pittsburgh firm focused on bankruptcy, restructuring, & creditors' rights; zoning & land use; business & finance; and alcoholic beverages and liquor licensing matters. He is proud to be a first generation attorney and college graduate, having earned his undergraduate degree from the University of South Florida.

When not practicing law, Tyler is an avid hiker, scuba diver, and snow skier, and he enjoys cheering on the Penn State Nittany Lions, the Miami Heat, and the Miami Dolphins.
