

March 18, 2024

Traub Lieberman Partner Michael Logan and Associate Christian Romaguera Obtain Voluntary Dismissal in Favor of Concrete Company

Related Attorneys: Michael D. Logan

In a matter brought in Santa Rosa County, Traub Lieberman Partner Michael Logan and Associate Christian Romaguera achieved a voluntary dismissal in favor of their client, a Florida-based concrete company (the "Company"). The Plaintiff claimed that she was seriously and permanently injured in an accident involving the Company's truck and filed a lawsuit against the company demanding hundreds of thousands of dollars, including more than $80,000 in medical bills. Due to the diligent preparation of the Traub Lieberman team, the Plaintiff's case was significantly undermined at deposition and the Plaintiff voluntarily withdrew the claim against the Company shortly after.