

Gregory Lenzi

ASSOCIATE

Gregory is an associate in the firm's New Jersey office who focuses his practice on general liability, commercial litigation, trucking and commercial auto, and insurance coverage matters.

Gregory is an associate in the firm's New Jersey office, where he works to create relationships with his clients through strong communication, tireless commitment to his client's needs, and zealous advocacy and representation.

Gregory handles a wide range of general liability and litigation matters which include commercial litigation, product liability, premises liability, trucking and commercial auto, and insurance coverage matters. Prior to joining Traub Lieberman, Gregory worked for a mid-sized firm in Pensacola, Florida where his practice focused on residential and commercial real estate transactions and probate administration. He subsequently clerked for the Hon. David M. Fritch, J.S.C. Ocean County in both the family and criminal division.

When he is not assisting his clients, Gregory enjoys running, cycling trails, playing softball, and watching his Denver Broncos.
