Yeji (“Joy”) Kim is an associate in the firm’s Chicago office who focuses her practice on insurance coverage. She has experience representing clients in complex commercial litigation matters.

Joy earned her law degree from Penn State Law in University Park, Pennsylvania. During her time at Penn State Law, Joy served in various executive board positions for the Asian Pacific American Law Students Association, South Asian Law Students Association, and Penn State Law Benefiting THON, and helped found the First-Generation Law Student Association. Joy also was the inaugural recipient of the Professor Emerita Beth Farmer Educational Equity Scholarship at Penn State Law.

Prior to joining Traub Lieberman, Joy represented corporate clients in premises and product liability matters.

In her personal time, Joy enjoys strength training and running—completing her first marathon at the 2024 Chicago Marathon. When she’s not exercising, she enjoys checking out new cafes and restaurants around Chicago or playing with her French Bulldog, Kobe.
